CANARY BIRD VS. A MOUSE.

Who Do You Think Won the Fight?—Read on and See.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
 HASTINGS (N. J.) Oct. 28.—At the home of Samuel Poe here today, a canary bird whipped a mouse in a fair fight. When the battle was over the bird gave evidence of its elation by trilling some of its sweetest songs. The mouse entered the cage of the canary when it stood on a table, evidently suffering from hunger. It began to eat up seeds put in the cage for the canary. The bird became enraged and attacked the mouse. It took only a few seconds for the bird to blind the mouse with its bill.

COLD RECORD IN PORTLAND, ME.

TEMPERATURE GOES LOWEST EVER KNOWN IN MONTH OF OCTOBER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Winter's first attack which brought killing frosts and biting temperatures to many sections of the country, practically had exhausted itself tonight. In the south some unusually low temperatures prevailed today, but warmer weather was near in their wake. The frost line in the east extended as far south as the interior of North Carolina.

Portland, Me., today established a new cold record for October, with a temperature of twenty-two and in New York the October mark of thirty was equaled.

The government forecasters tonight indicated normal temperatures would prevail for the next two or three days.

Last Word from Sir Ernest Shackleton.

Important Changes Made in the Plans of the British Explorer.

BY SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON.

[Copyright, 1914, by the New York World.]
 [BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EX-CUSIVE DISPATCH.]
 BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 28.—I send you my last cable as we start for the Antarctic. We are leaving now to carry on our white warfare, and our farewell message to our country is that we shall do our best to make good.

Though we shall be shut off from the outer world for many months, with our brothers fighting at the front, we hope, in our small way, to add victories in science and discovery to that certain victory which our nation will achieve in the cause of honor and liberty.

I have had to make some changes in our plans. The most important alteration in our programme is that instead of the "Endurance" returning to South Georgia and Buenos Aires after landing members of the expedition, as originally intended, she will winter in the Antarctic. This plan will enable us to use practically all the coal on board in an effort to make rapid progress to the south.

We are sailing today for South Georgia. On arrival there all our dogs will be landed on one of the small islands and left alone. They are a very important part of our equipment, and some of them are suffering slightly from want of exercise.

They have not been off the ship since leaving England. The Geological work to be done. The "Endurance" will then proceed south to examine the pack ice, and see whether it is loose enough to go into without unnecessary delay. After such an examination we shall return to South Georgia to pick up the members of the expedition and dogs.

The "Endurance" will be at her fullest capacity, and, proceeding south again, we shall push right into the pack ice, keeping as much to the eastward as possible in the hope of meeting more open water than is probably to be found farther west.

We will rest for all repairs. It is a very heavy ice season in the Weddell Sea. I hope to winter the vessel in 71-30 degrees south latitude, but if we gain this point at a sufficiently early date we may possibly start on.

Communication with us will, of course, be only one way, for it will not be possible for us to transmit messages. The Minister of Marine has promised to dispatch a wireless time signal from the New Year Island station, which will enable us to correct the chronometers from time to time, and doubtless we shall receive other intelligence.

We will enjoy the splendid reception, and the authorities have done everything possible to help the expedition.

 IS CHIVALRY DEAD? OH, NO!

DR. WHITE, WHO "MASHED" MISS VALE, SAYS IT ISN'T.

For He Now Comes into Court with a Brand New Excuse for Speaking to the President's Relative—But She Says His Story is Untrue.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 28.—Chivalry is not dead. At least Dr. Ernest C. White, who is just winding up a ten day's sentence in the work house for "mashing" the President's relative, is not dead.

Dr. White, whose predicament is due to Miss Margaret Vale, a niece by marriage of President Wilson, asked today through his counsel to have the judgment of the court set aside.

The reasons for the motion showed a side of the doctor's nature that did not come out at the time of his arraignment, on October 19. Then he said he had just returned from a long sojourn in Paris, and that in accordance with the custom of the French, he was following a perfectly good Parisian custom and wanted to see if it would work in New York.

Now the doctor's prisoner status, the attorney sets forth, the doctor refused to reveal the true state of affairs out of regard for the feelings of his accuser. Rather than embarrass a woman, he took his medicine. He wants the judgment set aside as a bait for his own feelings.

Miss Vale said tonight that White's story is entirely untrue.

SALVATION OF LIFE IS OUT OF HIS LINE.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
 LONDON, Oct. 28.—A letter from an American official in Germany tells of an interesting conversation with Lieut. Weddinger, the commander of the submarine which sank the British cruisers Hogue, Aboukir and Cressy, and according to reports in German papers, also the cruiser Hawke.

Lieut. Weddinger almost spared the Cressy, feeling strongly against sending this last ship to the bottom because it was the only thing to save the men from the other cruisers, who were struggling in the water.

BAVARIANS ARE STEELED FOR FIGHT WITH BRITISH.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.
 LONDON, Oct. 28, 12:45 a.m.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Amsterdam says: "Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, brother of the Belgian Queen, who is commanding the Sixth German Army Corps, has issued the following army order:

"Soldiers of the Sixth Army Corps: We are fortunate to have opposed to us English troops—the troops of that people whose envy has been at work for years to surround us with enemies in order to strangle us. We owe to them the present bloody war. Therefore take reprisals for the cunning of the enemy and for all our sacrifices when we now meet them."

"Show them that it is not so easy to wipe out the Germans of history as they are now. They are bringing up fresh men and more ammunition and guns, but at the same time they are taking the precaution to prepare a second line of defense, should their forward movement again meet with defeat."

The new attempt, it is believed, will be made farther inland, for the flure of the first one was largely due to the bombardment that the troops and artillery had to undergo from the British and French warships off the coast of Belgium.

LIMIT OF ENDURANCE IS FINALLY REACHED.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.
 LONDON, Oct. 28, 9:40 p.m.—The limit of human endurance has been reached in the battle in West Flanders, and the fighting which slackened yesterday, came to an almost complete stop today. There may have been some infantry attacks and these may continue, but dispatches from points along the Dutch frontier state that the artillery firing has ceased, and passengers crossing the channel tonight bring the same news.

It was this doubtless that led to the report coming from Northern France that the Germans had retired, having given up their attempt to reach the channel ports.

The fact is that the two armies have fought themselves out, temporarily, and that the Germans' first effort to break through the allied lines has failed. Neither side could continue the longer, the men having been without sleep or rest for the ten days that the battle has been in progress, over and over again, and they put more men in the trench.

The Germans succeeded last Saturday in getting some men across the Yser canal, and they put more men across Sunday. But the force facing them was too formidable, and now the opposing armies are taking a long-needed rest.

There is every evidence, however, that the Germans intend to renew their attempt to force their way through to Dunkirk. They are bringing up fresh men and more ammunition and guns, but at the same time they are taking the precaution to prepare a second line of defense, should their forward movement again meet with defeat.

The small forces which have been left to hold the line from the Oise to the Meuse, while the greater battle is proceeding, have been engaging in night attacks at different points, the

 PARIS, Oct. 28, 11:18 p.m.—The official communication issued by the War Office tonight says:

"In Belgium two night attacks attempted by the enemy in the region of Dixmude have been repulsed. The German effort on the front between Nieupoort and Dixmude appeared to be moderating. Our offensive continues to the north of Ypres."

"Between La Bassée and Lens there has been slight progress on our part."

"On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

FRENCH EMBASSY REPORT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Official dispatches made public here tonight by the French Embassy reported successes for the allies all along the line.

"Reports state that everywhere the enemy has received a serious check," said the cablegram.

"Other attacks on different parts of our front, particularly at the north and the south of the Somme and toward Berry-au-Bac, were less important."

"Reports state that everywhere the enemy has received a serious check. In the course of the day yesterday, as previously, the allied troops took a number of prisoners. In the region of the north an unknown number of mitrailleuses and cannon were taken by our troops."

"In Poland the progress of the Russians continues. A very vigorous combat took place in the region of Jozefow."

"In the direction of Now Alexandria Zverolen the enemy beat a retreat, leaving to the Russians fifty officers, 3000 men and a number of mitrailleuses and cannon."

"To the south of Zolots the Russian troops crossed the Vistula, taking eight officers and 800 men."

"In the Carpathians the Austrians were thrown back on the railway near Starmort-Turka. In East Prussia violent German attacks were repulsed."

OFFICIAL GERMAN REPORT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
 AMSTERDAM (via London) Oct. 28, 8:30 p.m.—General headquarters at Berlin issued the following official communication this morning:

"The fighting near Nieupoort and Dixmude is continuing. The Belgians have received considerable reinforcements, but our attacks are being pushed. Sixteen British warships joined in the attack on our right wing, but their bombardment was without success."

"Near Ypres the situation as announced yesterday remains unchanged. West of Lille our attacks are being continued with success."

"DUNKIRK AND CALAIS" ORDER OF THE KAISER.

BY AN ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF THE "ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL"
 NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 28.—The energy with which the Germans are pressing their attacks along the Yser River in the westernmost corner of Belgium shows that it is not a demonstration, but a determination to obtain some military object. The operations in this district confirm to some extent the rumor reported from Danish sources that the Kaiser has issued orders for the capture of Dunkirk and Calais at any cost.

The country in which this fighting is taking place is especially disadvantageous for the assailants. The low-lying ground is converted into bogs by the rains, and the creeks have soft, muddy bottoms, making them dangerous to ford. The flat stretches enable the defenders to make use of their rifle and artillery fire at full effective range, while the assailants have difficulty in finding natural features to conceal their movements.

The accounts indicate that the Germans pushed forward their night attack without delaying to gain superiority in artillery fire. The cost in lives and wounded of these assaults against entrenched positions must have been terrible. The great effort of the Germans to break through the Belgian defensive line seems to have been stopped for the time being, due to the arrival of French reinforcements.

Both sides claim the advantage in the fighting east of the Ypres and between Lille and Arras. No definite progress, however, is given in the dispatches of either side. In this fighting the forces of the allies seem to have become intermingled to a large extent. British and Belgians are fighting at Dixmude. French and Belgians are fighting east of Ypres. The British have been mentioned along the Armentieres, the French at Lille, the French at Lens and the British again at Arras. From this point south to the Aisne, the line is held by the French alone. For forty miles opposite Soissons and Craonne the First British Army holds the line. The original troops have been aug-

Petrograd, However, has a Very Different Story.

MANCHESTER (Mass.) Oct. 19.—Two official wireless dispatches concerning the fighting in the eastern zone were given out here tonight by the Austro-Hungarian Embassy. The first read as follows:

"At Petrograd we have made up our minds to fight to the end. We have 100,000 prisoners and captured seven machine guns. One Russian colonel and 200 men surrendered near Jassy. At Zlatibor, southwest of Belgrade, the Russian army was repulsed. In fights in which we cleared Eastern Russia we captured two guns and a lot of ammunition. The enemy and captured 100 machine guns, 800 rifles and numerous prisoners. A counter attack made by the Serbian broke down."

The second dispatch said: "The situation in the middle of Galicia is unchanged. Heavy fighting is going on southwest of Brody, where one of our army corps captured 10,000 prisoners."

RUSSIANS REPORT MANY VICTORIES.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
PETROGRAD, Oct. 19.—The following official communication was received today from general headquarters:

"In the battle which has been in progress for four days south of the Drina River in the Balkans (Belgrade) to Glogovac, Poles and Jassy, our troops have inflicted a severe defeat. Between the Poles and Glogovac the heroic efforts of our troops definitely broke down on October 19 the resistance of the Twentieth Corps and the Reserve Twentieth Corps of the German army. On the center, after fighting of a desperate character, we succeeded in establishing a firm foothold on the border of a forest in the region of the village of Adamoff, Semovoff and Marjanoff."

"On the left wing we captured by assault a defensive position established at Poljana, and captured a portion of the Austrian troops near Berdichev."

"On the night of October 19 the enemy's corps fell back in disorder towards the line between Poljana, Berdichev and Elna. In the same manner we captured a portion of the enemy's positions and prisoners."

"On the right bank of the Drina, on the front between Ljubi and Marjanoff, the fighting continued with the same desperation."

"In Galicia the battle is raging along the whole front of the Russian front. We have taken an additional 100 officers and 500 men."

"South of Przemyel our troops are advancing at certain points."

"In East Prussia the enemy has violently bombarded our position in the operations in the region of Bagin. Repeated attacks have all been repulsed."

"The success which we have won in the south of the and the retreat of the enemy on the main front is of the very greatest importance."

WILSON'S AUTOS CAMPAIGN ISSUE.

THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS SPENT ON MACHINES FOR WHITE HOUSE.

(BY WIRELESS DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 19.—There is much criticism here because four new costly automobiles have recently been acquired by the White House for the use of President Wilson and his family.

The list price of these machines is $15,000, and the cars are made by the Ford Motor Company. The President and his family are riding at heavy expense.

The objects may that $30,000 of automobiles for Wilson and his family is more of the luxury of kings than the habits of a "Democratic" President. The matter, it is reported, has become a campaign issue in Jersey, both the President and his family being Jerseyites.

Never before has there been so much comment on the President of the United States or his secretary being supplied with automobiles. The President's predecessors contented themselves with one or two inexpensive machines.

TO FILL VAULTS WITH CURRENCY.

Reserve Banks to be Given Money at Once.

Integration of System Must be Facilitated.

Millions in Gold will be Transferred Shortly.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Federal Reserve Board tonight notified all banks that are members of the new system that gold or lawful money must be used in making the transfer of reserve deposits from the present banks to the Federal reserve banks.

The step is designed to fill the vaults of the twelve reserve banks with money at once and will permit the issue of Federal reserve notes to member banks.

The board announced also that this step will apply to subscriptions to be made to the capital stock of reserve banks by the member institutions, the installment of which is required by the act.

The transfer of reserve deposits will begin after the Secretary of the Treasury makes formal notification of the opening of the twelve banks November 14.

"The Federal Reserve Board appeals to the patriotic spirit of all member banks large and small," said the board in its announcement, "to do all that is possible in facilitating the different work now thrown upon the offices of the newly-created reserve banks and to do all in their power to assist for the new system the greatest possible success from the beginning."

No completion as yet has been given by the department showing the amount of money to be transferred.

BOARD'S ANNOUNCEMENT.
The board's announcement in part reads:

The Secretary of the Treasury has advised the Federal Reserve Board that formal notice of the establishment of the several Federal reserve banks will be given to all member banks on November 16, it is announced that arrangements be made for the transfer of reserve deposits to the member banks to their respective Federal reserve banks on that date. It is the desire of the board that the transfer of reserve deposits be made in a manner as to create the least possible disturbance to business in any city or section.

It is of course, clear that if the non-reserve cities undertake to make the transfer of reserve deposits to their Federal reserve bank in a manner as to create the least possible disturbance to business in any city or section.

The deposits of reserves with Federal reserve banks must be made in lawful money, and in order to the withdrawal of funds from the vaults of member banks may be necessary to make certain points.

The proclamation refers to the fact that the United States is at peace, while the rest of the world is at war, and is as follows:

"By the President of the United States of America.

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed a day of national thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of change which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing to us."

"It has been vouchsafed to us to remain at peace, with honor, and in some part to succor the suffering and supply the needs of those who are in want. We have been privileged by our own peace and self-control in some degree to steady the counsels and shape the hopes and purposes of a day of fear and distress. Our people have looked upon their lives as a nation with deeper comprehension, a fuller realization of their responsibilities as well as of their blessings and a keener sense of the moral and practical significance of what their part among the nations of the world may consist."

"The hurtful effects of foreign war in their own industrial and commercial affairs have made them feel the more fully and see the more clearly their mutual independence upon one another, and has stirred them to helpful co-operation such as they have seldom practiced before. They have been quickened by a great moral stimulation. Their unselfish ardor for peace, their earnest pity and disinterested sympathy for those who are suffering, their readiness to help and to share, their sense of duty, have revealed them to themselves as well as to the world."

"Our crops will feed all who need food; the self-possession of our people amidst the most serious anxieties and difficulties and the steadiness and resourcefulness of our business men will serve other nations as well as our own."

"The business of the country has been supplied with instrumentalities and the commerce of the world with new channels of trade and intercourse. The Panama Canal has been opened to the commerce of nations. The two continents of America have been bound in closer ties of friendship. New instrumentalities of international trade have been created which will be also new instrumentalities of acquaintance, intercourse and mutual service. Never before have the people of the United States been so situated for their own advantage or for the advantage of their neighbors or so equipped to serve themselves and mankind."

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-sixth of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and invite citizens throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God."

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed."

"Done at the city of Washington this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the One Hundred and Thirty-Ninth."

ORANGE GROWERS LOSE.
Refrigeration Rates to the East are Not Changed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—An attack made by the California Fruit Growers Association upon refrigeration rates on deciduous fruits shipped to the United States to eastern destinations, was dismissed today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The commission also held that the evidence introduced as to the freight rates on deciduous fruits from California to destinations in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee was "not sufficient to warrant the very extensive reductions sought."

Hotels in Boston are Warned that Discrimination will be Costly.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—Proprietors of hotels and places of amusement were notified today by Atty.-Gen. Thomas J. Boynton that discriminating against men wearing the army or navy uniform would be a violation of law and that they would be liable to a fine of $500 for so doing. Mr. Boynton's notification was the result of a complaint from the Secretary of the Navy that there had been instances of such discrimination in this State.

BANKS TAKE COTTON LOAN.

LITTLE DOUBT EXPRESSED AS TO SUCCESS OF PLAN.

With South Pleasantly Supplied with Cash, and Federal Reserve System but Few Weeks from its Opening, Business Men May Now Look for Brighter Horizon.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Replies continued to reach the Treasury Department today from clearinghouse associations in various parts of the country accepting the cotton loan fund plan. The Federal Reserve Board, however, does not expect to be in position to announce formal adoption of the plan until late in the present week.

Little doubt is expressed here that banks and others will agree to contribute to the fund so that $100,000,000 can be subscribed outside the cotton-producing States.

Officials said tonight that with this fund in operation, with more than $53,000,000 in Aldrich-Vreeland currency in the southern banks and with the Federal reserve system only a few weeks from its opening point, business men interested in cotton or other products could look ahead with short distance to a brighter horizon.

ARKANSAS BANKS WELL PLEASED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) Oct. 19.—Officials of the Arkansas Bankers' Association, reconvened today in action taken earlier in the day when President George W. Rogers announced that the association would render no aid to the proposed $100,000,000 cotton pool. President Rogers said the earlier action was caused by a misunderstanding of the proposed plan.

After receiving details of the plan later, President Rogers said the plan is satisfactory and that it is better for the southern banks than the original plan. He announced that the association will stand by the action taken at its meeting yesterday when it was voted that Arkansas banks should contribute $2,000,000, which was decided upon as this State's share.

NOTED POLOIST COMING HERE.
Devereaux Milburn, Wife and Their Infant Daughter Will Spend Winter in California.

(BY WIRELESS DISPATCH.)
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 19.—Members of the Meadowbrook and Long Island polo and hunting colony are showering congratulations on Mr. and Mrs. Devereaux Milburn upon the arrival of their first child, a daughter. The christening will probably be in the same church in which Miss Steele and Milburn, famous international polo player, were married a year ago. Mr. Milburn intends going with his wife and daughter to California the first of the new year with other noted players to have some games there, as the polo season in Europe is off for an indefinite time.

SAN DOMINGO REBELLION.
Operations of Revolutionists Still in the Field Not Causing Serious Apprehension at Washington.

(BY WIRELESS DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Reports from the American commission in San Domingo received here today indicated disturbed conditions on the island were gradually quieting down. The new election law is being supported by the people, the dispatches said, and the revolutionists still in the field are not causing serious apprehension.

NATIVE TROOPS SURPRISE GERMANS.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
PARIS, Oct. 19.—The vigor of the German attacks on the north was diminished greatly today after they had carried out two surprise assaults during the night, which cost both sides dearly.

Real success has been attained by the allies, who have not only prevented a breach in the line, but have made considerable progress, and now firmly hold the line from Neuport to Dixmude and on to the neighborhood of Lille.

Officers who have returned from the front describe a dangerous task performed by the native troops during the night along the Belgian coast. They surprised and destroyed a German ammunition park, thus putting out of action several German batteries which had caused great annoyance to the allies, who could not reach them with their artillery.

In absolute darkness several natives crept up stealthily and killed the German sentries. They then set fire to a thick, where the ammunition wagons were sheltered, causing all the shells to explode.

GERMAN LINES THINNED TO THE SOUTH OF LILLE.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The German lines forming a marvel of endurance. One regiment took part in ten encounters in a single day, at the same time covering more than forty miles of ground. The other detachments are doing equally well. Their orders are to hold the Germans back and worry them night and day, but they have also developed an offensive movement of their own and have succeeded in driving the Germans onto the reserves.

The allies' artillerymen have successfully adopted a puse to prevent the German aviators from discovering the position of their batteries. They keep piles of brushwood near their guns, and when a German aeroplane is sighted, the brushwood is placed over the guns and the men lie down beneath it or take cover in the trenches, where they remain until the airman has passed out of sight.

Eight French cannon put sixteen German three-inch guns out of action in half an hour between the Aisne and the Oise, and prevented the Germans from effecting a plan to cut communications.

Prior to this French and German cavalry fought a minor action, in which the Germans were repulsed.

The cavalry of the allies is protected.

UNITED STATES WELL FORTIFIED.

ABLE TO RESIST SEA ATTACKS, SAYS REPRESENTATIVE.

Declares with Exception of Harbor of Los Angeles Where Emplacements are Being Built, and Chesapeake Bay Ports are All Defended by Most Modern Weapons.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Oct. 19.—The United States is so well fortified, with the exception of two points where work now is in progress, that an attack from the sea probably never will be made on any of these fortifications," said Representative Swager Sherley in an authorized statement here today. Mr. Sherley is chairman of the House Committee on Fortifications and is campaigning in the Fifth Kentucky District, seeking re-election to the House.

"The theory upon which the fortifications have been constructed," said Mr. Sherley, who led up to the subject with a discussion of the seventeen-inch guns used by the Germans in Belgium, the existence of which he said he doubted, "is to protect important harbors from a direct attack by a hostile fleet. This has been done, except at the harbor of Los Angeles, where emplacements for guns are being built, and at the mouth of the Chesapeake, where land has been acquired, and estimates shortly will be submitted for placing sixteen-inch guns along with other armament that should protect that entrance."

"Our guns are of the most modern pattern," he continued, "and are capable of destroying the most modern super-dreadnought. Whether it may be thought advisable in the future to prepare certain minor defenses in the rear of our coast fortifications is a matter about which there is some difference of opinion, and which likely will continue to receive consideration at the hands of the War College and the General Staff."

The majority of the people of Southern California are here because it is the most pleasant dwelling place in America. That is why people are now here by the hundred thousand, why they will continue to come by other hundreds of thousands, as our enormous American continent will release them from their duties. These are some of the reasons why land and lot values suburban to Los Angeles are generally at figures that many consider high, and that continue to grow.

BET SUGAR TO SAVE THE DAY.

KNOCKS TWENTY POINTS OFF PRICE IN CHICAGO.

Heavy Shipments from California Bring Sweet Stuff Down with a Rush—Industry Booms Under Stimulus of New Conditions and May Replace Much Alfalfa.

Tuesday's decline in sugar of twenty points under the list price prevailing on Saturday, October 24, bringing best sugar down to $5.85 per hundred on the Coast and to $5.70 in Chicago, is declared by A. L. Peck, owner of the Anaheim Sugar Company, in Orange county, to be the direct and beneficial result of large shipments of California beet sugar to the Middle West.

"California beet sugar, as well as that shipped from the other producing States, is performing its important annual function in reducing the market price of sugar throughout the country," he said. "The California factories were turning out sugar since August, but it is only recently that the effect on prices has been noticeable. With the present sugar tariff the return of imported Cuban sugar today would be selling their sugar at much higher prices if the beet sugar factories were not forcing them by active competition to come down."

"A large amount of sugar having been sold before the war at considerably lower prices than prevailed during the days of speculation, a great number of resales of sugar were made and are still being made, the filling of the entire demand. Sugar has consistently declined from week to week and direct sales are few because there is so much cheap second-hand sugar hugging the market. The price of $5.15 for resale California beet sugar in Chicago means only $4.42 net to the factories here. The list price of refined cane in New York is $5.70, but there are very little of no sales being made as long as second-hand sugar holds the market with much lower prices. The tendency is to press the Chicago market down lower than that in New York because beet sugar is not shipped east of Chicago in large enough amounts to influence prices. When the day arrives that domestic grown beet sugar can be shipped to every part of the United States and entirely supply the demand, the price of sugar will be lower here than in any other country."

"Providing that we do not suffer the destruction of the beet sugar industry by the passing of a free sugar bill in 1916, as is the intention of the Democratic party, great strides in beet sugar production will be made in California. A decided increase in the sugar beet acreage is beginning to take place because of the failure of alfalfa growers to realize satisfactory profits on their crops. A considerable area hitherto planted to alfalfa must go into sugar beets next year, owing to the decrease in horses and other stock having made a falling off in the demand for hay. Taking the attractive profits earned by the beet growers this year as a basis upon which to estimate the future, I would say that next year will find the ranks of the beet growers in California augmented by greater numbers than any other crop."

BIG RECEPTION
TO FREDERICKS.*Republican Leader Returns
Home Today.*North Safe for Him, Says
State Chairman.*Will Campaign in Home County for Three Days.

On the eve of the return of Capt. Fredericks to his home county to complete his State-wide campaign for the Governorship, the following telegram was received by Chairman Bowen of the Republican County Committee:

"Sentiment for Fredericks in San Francisco and Northern California is running daily. There is no question of his election by the committee of Northern California. We of San Francisco look to the counties south of the Tehachas to do their duty to the standard-bearer of the party and make the majority substantial in no uncertain terms."

The telegram is signed by Francis V. Keadling, Republican State chairman. Capt. Fredericks returns early this morning and will be in conference with party leaders until the reception at the Alexandria this afternoon, when it is expected that he will meet thousands of his friends of all parties. Nearly every Republican organization of men and women will attend the reception in a body.

Capt. Fredericks will speak briefly in the ballroom. Tonight two meetings will be held by the candidate: one at South Pasadena at 7:30, in O'Connell's hall; the other at the Y.M.C.A. at Pasadena at 8:30.

Congressman Knowland, who returns with Capt. Fredericks, will also tour the country in the closing days of the campaign.

BIG MEETING FRIDAY.
The big, formal welcome to Capt. Fredericks will be tomorrow night at the Trinity Auditorium. It is not believed that there will be room for the immense crowd that is expected, and for that reason Chairman Bowen of the county committee urges all who wish to hear Capt. Fredericks to appear early.

It is expected that an overflow crowd will be addressed either by Capt. Fredericks or one of the other Republican leaders. At the Trinity Auditorium Friday night Capt. Fredericks will tell the people of his home city of the wonderful reception he received in all parts of the north and of the enthusiasm for the Republican principles that he expounded.

Freeing the meeting there will be a parade of hundreds of automobiles.

LUNCHEON AT CLARK.
Under the auspices of the Southern California Women's Republican Federation, Congressman Knowland, Republican candidate for United States Senator, will speak in the afternoon at the Alexandria Hotel this afternoon, shortly after Capt. Fredericks makes his speech to the women.

An elaborate luncheon will be given at the Clark Hotel today in honor of Mrs. Fredericks. The affair has been planned by the Southern California Women's Republican Federation. Mrs. O. P. Clark will be the toastmistress and Mrs. Fredericks will respond to a toast given for Capt. Fredericks.

Mrs. Harrington W. Hyde, president of the federation, announces that reservations for the luncheon have been made from Mrs. Gibbs, No. 410 Wilcox building.

AT SOUTH PASADENA.
The South Pasadena Republican Club has all arrangements made for the reception to Capt. Fredericks at O'Connell's Hall this evening. The meeting will also be addressed by Frank C. Roberts, candidate for Congress; H. A. Unruh, nominee for the Legislature; Hon. Frank H. Short of Fresno and Edward A. Simons of South Pasadena.

Dr. Henry Sherry, president of the club, will preside, and the meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

As Capt. Fredericks can attend other gatherings the same evening where he is scheduled to speak, it is the intention of the club to make this the greatest political meeting to be held in South Pasadena during the present campaign. To entertain the affair, splendid music will be provided.

SPEAKS AT GLENDALE.
Visitors at Glendale and from the hills and valleys surrounding will hear Capt. Fredericks Saturday afternoon.

One of the biggest suburban rallies of the campaign will be the outdoor meeting at the junction of Brand boulevard and Broadway, under the auspices of the Republican Club of Glendale. The gathering will be called to order at 3 o'clock with the arrival, by auto, of Capt. Fredericks, who will deliver his address.

It will be followed by Congressman Knowland.

Delegates both from the Women's Republican League and the Women's Republican Campaign Club will be present. Music will be furnished by the Glendale band.

FRIDAY, THE THIRTIETH.
Will Double Hoodoo Have Anything to do with Alleged Chinese Smuggler's Conviction Today?

Clinton Culver of Oceanside, who has the reputation of being a clever operator in the Chinese smuggling line, will have a double team against him in the United States District Court this morning when he will face the hoodoo of pulling off a game on Friday, March 13, 1914, and parenthetically defend himself from the charge of smuggling.

In the cool, dry dawn of that morning, it is alleged by the government that Culver, with William E. Freeman of San Luis Rey, Edgar G. Mason, a chauffeur of this city; Sam Wing, a well-known Chinese operator of Oceanside, and Chew Bing and Lee Du Eng, State Agents, landed thirty Chinese contrabands on the beach at Wilmington. Mason met them at the landing with an auto, after waiting all night for the Culver boat to get in from Ensenada with its cargo of human freight. Joaquin Naud, a Chinese hauling from the Mexican end of the game, pleaded guilty some time ago and was sentenced to two years in San Quentin.

The landing of the Chinese was observed by a San Pedro policeman, and the whole party taken into custody. The contrabands were sent back to China.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Republican meetings will be held tonight as follows:
Sixty-seventh District—Capt. Fredericks, Frank C. Roberts and Frank H. Short, at Y.M.C.A., Pasadena, 8 o'clock.
Sixty-ninth District—Capt. Fredericks, Frank C. Roberts and S. J. Simons, at O'Connell Hall, South Pasadena, 7:30 o'clock.
Seventy-fifth District—Capt. H. Z. Osborne and Edwin Baker at Grand-avenue schoolhouse, Grand avenue and Eighth street, 8 o'clock.

Sixty-first District—Frank C. Roberts and George F. Adams, at Banker's Auditorium, San Fernando, 8 o'clock.

INSURANCE MEN

ASSERT THEIR NAMES WERE

Did not Indorse Hiram, Although Earl Papers Took Liberties with Names—Say Misrepresentation was Contemptible and Dishonest. Mostly Republicans.

Branding as unfair, contemptible and dishonest the act of an Earl newspaper in publishing the report that sixteen life insurance companies in Los Angeles had adopted resolutions indorsing Johnson and Eschelman, managers of several of the leading insurance companies yesterday refuted the claim and freed themselves of the stigma which such an untruth would leave.

The item was published following a meeting of the life insurance managers given as a compliment to John B. Phelps, the present Life Insurance Commissioner. At this meeting resolutions were presented, it is said, by J. J. Muma, manager of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, praying Gov. Johnson for having appointed an insurance man to the position of Insurance Commissioner and concluding with an indorsement of both Johnson and Eschelman.

Individual votes on the resolutions were not taken and the names of those present were not even signed to them, but the Earl organ in its customary unscrupulous fashion published many names to make it appear that the indorsement was the sense of each individual.

Mr. Muma, instigator of the resolutions, said yesterday they were not signed by the managers and that no one would assume that the companies represented by the managers were in any manner responsible for their action.

"I did not even vote on the resolutions," said J. N. Russell, Jr., manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, "praying Gov. Johnson for having appointed an insurance man to the position of Insurance Commissioner and concluding with an indorsement of both Johnson and Eschelman."

LARK ELLEN LEAGUE WORKING HARD FOR CLINE.

A meeting of the executive board of the Lark Ellen League was held last evening at which time the last Thursday in November was set for the annual meeting of the league at the Alexandria Hotel. Ellen E. Clark, president of the league, presided.

Subjects relating to the league were selected for presentation before the annual assembly.

A communication was received from Mrs. O. P. Clark suggesting that an effort be made to locate their proposed boys' industrial farm on the thirteen acres in Eagle Rock Valley, now occupied by the Lark Ellen newsboys' organization.

In connection with this feature of their welfare work, the league has indicated the candidacy of John B. Cline for Sheriff. The league has Mr. Cline's assurance that in the event of his election he will give his best efforts toward the furtherance of that work regardless of race, creed or social status.

The following ladies are among those taking an active interest in the work of the league: Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, Mrs. O. P. Clark, Mrs. Jennie Winston, Mrs. Malone Joyce, Mrs. A. T. Francis, Mrs. M. G. H. Wray, Mrs. William Harvey Hough, Miss Margaret Bent, Miss Elsie Gregg, Mrs. Matthew Robertson, Mrs. Kate S. Bryant, Mrs. M. Wallace, Mrs. George Brotherton, Mrs. Emily Wright, Mrs. B. Wanda, Mrs. L. E. Steinberg, Mrs. Beth Glendon, Mrs. B. Thorpe, Mrs. W. A. Weldon, Mrs. J. J. CALIFORNIA FOREVER.

So Say Some Fifteen Hundred Persons Who Bought Round-Trip Tickets and Want Half Refunded.

Los Angeles is showing increasing power as a magnet for the discriminating. During August, September and the first three weeks of October, 1437 persons offered their return-trip tickets to the railroads here for refund, preferring to remain here rather than return to their former abode. This was nearly double the number requested refund during any similar period of the past.

"We prefer to have them ride out their tickets, being in the transportation business," said Commercial Agent Perry of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, yesterday. "However, the decided preference of many for California should redound to our advantage in the long run—more people here, more travel, also more visitors."

In connection with the large increase in refund demands, railroad officials point out that persons purchasing round-trip tickets are usually those who are well provided with this world's goods, therefore are most desirable passengers.

POMONA CLOSING CAMPAIGN WITH A ROUSING RALLY.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

POMONA, Oct. 22.—The last rousing Republican rally of the campaign was held last night at the Pomona Fairgrounds, which was well attended by an enthusiastic audience, which applauded to the echo the sentiments of staunch old-time Republicans.

The crowd gathered to the stirring strains of music by the Seventh Regiment Band. The theater stage was attractively hung with large American flags, while a huge vase of chrysanthemums and a large picture of the immortal Lincoln adorned the speakers' table.

It was arranged to hold joint Republican rallies here and at Claremont tonight, and the plan was successfully carried out. Ex-Prefectmaster Walter M. Ayer presided as chairman and introduced the speakers, who spoke briefly, and former Congressman James McLaughlin.

PLENTY AND WANT.
Mr. McLaughlin, who has hosts of friends in Pomona Valley, referred to the plenty and prosperity enjoyed in the country and Southern California under the Republican protective tariff, comparing it with the changes being brought about since the Democrats came into power two years ago. Mr. McLaughlin earnestly expressed the hope for the return of a Republican Congress and predicted that the next

GOLD IN GRASS ROOTS.
Strikes Made Near San Juan Capistrano Nets Good Results to Prospectors—Suggests Brought Here.

Although the possibilities of Orange county as a gold field have not been known they have been suddenly brought into the limelight by the news of the discovery of a deposit of the precious metal almost at the grass roots twelve miles northeast of San Juan Capistrano. A small party containing several hundred dollars in nuggets was brought to this city yesterday by Peter Bagoye, a prospector, who with Lucas Radovich, made the find. A similar discovery was made on the adjoining claim of H. A. Stewart.

While the district has been prospected for a number of years by a miner named Maximo Lopez, who more or less success, according to the reports, it has never attracted any particular attention. It is said that Mr. Lopez has been taking $1000 to $1500 worth of precious metal out of the canyon a year in which his claims as well as those on which the recent discovery was made are located, but no authentic verification of this report could be secured.

Mr. Bagoye stated yesterday that he and Mr. Radovich first came upon the rich stuff in the creek bed about a month or so ago at a depth of seven to nine feet in a gravel formation. Concluding that it had been washed down from some deposit in the mountainside, they began to explore the neighborhood. Just in the course of the past few weeks they state that they have run across three distinct ledges, as well as some rich stuff, similar to that found in the creek bed.

Having been intimately acquainted with Joseph F. Chambers for a period of some twenty years, I have learned to appreciate the sterling character and ability of this upright citizen and jurist. His home life and the splendid work that he has done in the various fraternal organizations with which he has been connected have endeared him not only to his personal friends and neighbors, but also to those who have had the honor of fraternal friendship. Joseph F. Chambers has always been a deep student and is thoroughly versed in the law. While not a lawyer myself, I am advised by leaders of the bar that he is in every way qualified and would be a credit to the Superior bench.

In casting my vote for judicial candidates I have always endeavored to select the highest type of citizens and those in whom the public would have full confidence; hence, I am fully convinced that I am making no mistake in rendering every possible assistance towards the election of Joseph F. Chambers for Judge of the Superior Court.

BWARE OF THE TWO EIGHT-HOUR PROPOSITIONS!

It will prove that "children should not play with edged tools" finds illustration when inexperienced and mentally unbalanced men engage in law-making. Possessed with a purpose to rob solvent and thrifty Peter in order to benefit insolvent and wasteful Paul, they succeed only in robbing both Peter and Paul and their action benefits nobody in the world.

Proposition No. 3, which will be submitted to the voters next Tuesday, is an initiative act adding to the Penal Code a section punishing with fine and imprisonment any employer who shall require or permit any person in his employ to work more than eight hours in one day.

And Proposition No. 45, (which is an eight-hour law in a different form) prohibits any employer who requires or permits any employee to work on Sunday or more than forty-eight hours in one week. This is as destructive as Proposition No. 3.

The intent of the proposers of the two eight hour laws was probably to benefit the Union Labor politicians of California, but, if enacted, its necessary inevitable effect would be to inflict loss and inconvenience upon small business men, upon farmers and householders and to deprive thousands of workers of employment, while large employers of labor might be able without serious loss to adjust their businesses to the law.

There are probably a thousand or more chauffeurs employed in this city. To apply the eight-hour law to them would be obviously impracticable. The owner of an auto would be compelled to wait to church on Sundays, and to wait home from evening prayer meetings or from the theater. He cannot afford to have a chauffeur to wait on him. He must have a public vehicle.

What is a man to do who, with his household, breakfasts at 7, lunches at 12 and dines at 6? He must hire two cooks and two waiter girls where he has one, or overwork his wife, or go to jail.

Most of the cows he milks and the horses he feeds only six days in the week. Only after 8 o'clock in the morning and before 5 o'clock in the evening? Must the barbers be inhibited from scraping chins, and the bath houses forbidden to turn a faucet except after 8 a.m., and before 5 p.m., and must all of us who do not cook our own food and attend to our own clothes go unfed, unshaved and uncleaned on Sundays?

Combined with the minimum wage law, the eight-hour law would have the effect of depriving of employment altogether and pauperizing workers who are industrious, less industrious, or less endowed with muscles or brains than the law allows. If a man can lay many shingles, or excavate as many yards of earth, or build as many houses, or sew as many yards of cloth in eight hours as he can in nine hours, and the law shall prohibit paying him less wages than he can earn in nine hours, the inevitable result will be that a man who is a tramp and an L.W.W., alternating between beggary and idleness.

Mr. G. H. Hecke states the case against the eight-hour law most forcefully. He says:

"This measure proposes an arbitrary eight-hour day in all occupations, whether or not it suits the interests of labor or employer. It prohibits overtime by which employees and employers divide the burden of emergency by co-operation. Without overtime ships would wait at the docks for loading and repairs; delayed trains could not reach destination; business and industry would be in continual confusion. It limits 'piecework,' the employer's reward for efficiency; increases the cost of living, and adds to the expense of childbirth, illness and death. It affects all labor for hire, including household helpers, hospital attendants, newspapermen and professors.

"All engaged in manufacture and trade will pay the penalty, also farming, which produces 'food for all.' The farmer sustains manufacturing and trade; he provides the opportunity for transportation and labor, and the basic factor in the development of the State; but neither he nor the rule of law can regulate the weather or govern conditions which control the production of land. He cannot fix prices on export products, which must compete in the world's markets, nor can he recover added cost of production from domestic consumers.

"The farmer is prevented from getting full service from his teams and his land. He is prevented from getting full service from his fields. His crops may perish in the orchard. His teamster may be stopped on a road and delayed by a sixteen-hour lawyer. Is it reasonable, then, to turn upon the farmer a law which subjects him to heavy penalty and makes him a criminal if he works, which holds him to idleness today, compels him to work overtime tomorrow? He cannot substitute other men to do the work; besides, there is no labor supply for substitution, and, in the lack of winter employment, it would be unjust and foolish to attempt to harvest work many thousands of additional workers by imposing an alluring and easy life under the proposed universal eight-hour law.

"If the employee, the results would be disastrous, for to him would fall the higher cost of living, but matters would finally so adjust themselves that the employee would be paid for his hours of work only, shortening his hours of labor and lessening his daily pay. And he would still have to pay the higher cost of living."

All the laws that cranks and dreamers can devise will never give the worker the opportunity for transportation and labor, and the basic factor in the development of the State; but neither he nor the rule of law can regulate the weather or govern conditions which control the production of land. He cannot fix prices on export products, which must compete in the world's markets, nor can he recover added cost of production from domestic consumers.

His teamster may be stopped on a road and delayed by a sixteen-hour lawyer. Is it reasonable, then, to turn upon the farmer a law which subjects him to heavy penalty and makes him a criminal if he works, which holds him to idleness today, compels him to work overtime tomorrow? He cannot substitute other men to do the work; besides, there is no labor supply for substitution, and, in the lack of winter employment, it would be unjust and foolish to attempt to harvest work many thousands of additional workers by imposing an alluring and easy life under the proposed universal eight-hour law.

"If the employee, the results would be disastrous, for to him would fall the higher cost of living, but matters would finally so adjust themselves that the employee would be paid for his hours of work only, shortening his hours of labor and lessening his daily pay. And he would still have to pay the higher cost of living."

All the laws that cranks and dreamers can devise will never give the worker the opportunity for transportation and labor, and the basic factor in the development of the State; but neither he nor the rule of law can regulate the weather or govern conditions which control the production of land. He cannot fix prices on export products, which must compete in the world's markets, nor can he recover added cost of production from domestic consumers.

electing a Democratic United States Senator.

He mentioned his connection with Mr. Phelan in the long-ago politics of San Francisco, and said that ex-Mayor Phelan was the only man in California who could really be helpful to the State in the Senate.

"You had a good Democratic Senator from Southern California once," he said, referring to the late Stephen M. White, "now why don't you try another from the north?"

Secretary Lane's administration met with vociferous applause. His words of praise of Mr. Phelan were not less inspiring to his audience, which then he had approached the speaker when he must leave for San Francisco again, and he ended his speech abruptly.

Those who had looked for a word of comfort to Senator Curtin were disappointed.

Just what influenced the Secretary-Gibson-Stimson interview had upon Secretary Lane's failure to mention the Democratic standard-bearer in California could not be ascertained.

At any rate the Democratic County Central Committee read a number of resolutions out of the party, which were passed by the party.

A resolution was passed reciting the fact that since Senator Curtin had been endorsed in letters and telegrams by Secretary of State Bryan, and by the Interior Land, Commissioner Caminetti and others, it came with honor to the party to endorse him.

Tim Spillacy, David Evans, Thomas E. Gibson, James A. Anderson and I. J. Muma have decided to support Johnson.

Spillacy, it is charged, sought and accepted appointment on the Democratic State Central Committee; Evans never was a party leader and is a civil service officer, offensively active in politics; Gibson never posed as a Democrat in California; Anderson is the paid attorney of E. T. Earl.

So they are flung out. Senator Curtin wired yesterday to W. H. Joyce of the county committee that he will reach Los Angeles today, and will campaign here for the remainder of the week. He passed Secretary Lane's door last night, and later returning to San Francisco at about the time Curtin started for Los Angeles.

BY TELEPHONE. FORD CAMPAIGN PUSHED.

With every minute of his time up to the eve of election day spoken for, W. J. Ford, candidate for District Attorney, received much impetus in his campaign yesterday through the results achieved by telephone. All day long the telephone was used to call attention to Mr. Ford's candidacy.

It was a busy day for the women voters who are working zealously for Mr. Ford. It was designated "Ford telephone day" and last night it was estimated that the women called up at least 10,000 of their sex.

At Ford headquarters the report was received that there were only one or two instances where women were called by telephone said they were not going to support Mr. Ford.

"I feel wonderful," said Mr. Ford last night. "Reports are reaching me from all sections and I am proud to say that my party for election could not be more flattering. I am working hard, so are my friends, and I feel certain that I will be victorious next Tuesday."

Friends of Mr. Ford have been taking straw votes indiscriminately during the past few days and without exception the results have been overwhelmingly in his favor. The most gratifying result was the vote taken at a Southern Pacific train coming into Los Angeles yesterday. The ballot was proposed by a friend of Mr. Ford and twenty-six votes were cast. Every one of them was for Ford.

Last night Mr. Ford addressed two large meetings, the first at Watts at 7 o'clock, and the second at Whittier. Tonight he will speak five times. His campaign calls for an address at a spoke party to be given by the Spanish War Veterans in the Hall of Records; Hyde Park, Inglewood, No. 114 East Third street and No. 1824 Central avenue.

Tomorrow evening he will speak at a meeting in the Union-avenue Methodist Episcopal Church and be third district in the evening. He will address a joint neighborhood gathering at the home of Mrs. A. B. Abbott, No. 2134 Broadway, at 8 o'clock. He will also speak at the home of Mrs. J. B. Knowland, Republican candidate for United States Senator, and Mrs. O. E. Clark, Republican Assembly nominee in the Thirty-eighth district.

Justice Shaw, candidate for re-election as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, was a guest of a group of his admirers at a luncheon yesterday at Hotel Alexandria, where arrangements were made to look after Judge Murphy's interests at the election next Tuesday.

With Peter C. Phillips, Republican Assembly nominee in the Sixty-fifth district, and an orchestra as attractions, hundreds last night attended the open-air Republican rally at Fourth and Glass streets. In addition to Mr. Phillips, judiciary nominees spoke.

Alfred L. Bartlett, Republican nominee for the Assembly in the Sixty-third district, yesterday afternoon addressed a joint neighborhood gathering at the home of Mrs. A. B. Abbott, No. 2134 Broadway, at 8 o'clock. He will also speak at the home of Mrs. J. B. Knowland, Republican candidate for United States Senator, and Mrs. O. E. Protection for American Industries and Free Trade for American Shippers.

With this reiterated but no less emphatic declaration, Frank C. Roberts, Republican nominee for Congress in the Ninth District, speaking last night at Whittier, evoked tremendous cheers from the big crowd of citizens gathered at the intersection of Greenfield and Philadelphia avenues.

It was a gathering of business men, citrus-fruit growers and others, who were gathered to hear Mr. Roberts and the other speakers who were to speak at the intersection of Greenfield and Philadelphia avenues.

Mr. Roberts and the other speakers were one that showed plainly that the voters of the Ninth District have made up their minds to sweep into political oblivion next Tuesday "Progressive" trifler and Prohibition false-promiser alike.

Mr. Roberts also took occasion to reply to the vicious and untruthful statements made against him by his hybrid opponent, posing both as Democrat and Prohibitionist.

Both before and after the meeting the prediction freely was made by persons in the audience that Roberts would carry the Ninth District next Tuesday by fully 12,000 votes.

Other speakers were C. C. Chapman, the famous orange grower and a prominent "dry," and Dr. Glenn McWilliams, the latter speaking for Capt. Fredericks, and W. J. Ford, Deputy District Attorney.

ALL REPUBLICAN. CAPT. OSBORNE TO WIN.

With the vote of every registered Republican in the Tenth Congress District assured to him, Capt. Osborne, Republican nominee for Congress, is concluding his campaign with big meetings every afternoon and night this week.

Capt. Osborne's well-known campaign slogan—"A Republican district should be represented in Congress by a Republican"—is one which has been appropriated enthusiastically not only by members of his own party, but also has been taken up by many Democrats and "Progressives," with the result that the captain will receive next Tuesday a considerable vote from members of both these two latter parties.

The business men of the Tenth District realize the fulfillment of expecting legislative accomplishment from the "Progressive" incumbent. Some of his harshest warmest supporters will vote for Capt. Osborne; they know now that it is the only way in which they can get anything for Los Angeles harbor.

POLITICAL PICK-UPS. Thomas J. Darnody, president of the Associated Liquor Dealers' Association, yesterday issued a statement of flat denial that the concern is in any way interested in candidates, but that it is working solely to prevent the adoption of the prohibition amendment.

The Women's Million Club held a social and political meeting in the Wilshire building yesterday. Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, the president, called upon a dozen or so members, who extolled the virtues of their favorite candidates for various offices. In many instances wives spoke for their husbands.

The Twentieth-street Civic Center will meet at the Twentieth-street school tonight when speakers will discuss prohibition and the eight-hour law.

A big Republican rally of the Seventy-third Assembly District will be held tonight at Washington Hall, Washington street and Central avenue. Fred J. Spring will speak for Capt. Fredericks, and other speakers will be W. H. O'Connell, Assembly candidate; W. J. Ford, for District Attorney; Capt. Osborne, Sheriff Hannell and J. W. Ballard, Senatorial candidate in the Thirty-eighth district.

The headquarters of Justice Frank J. Murphy, the Tule Insurance and Trust building yesterday had somewhat the appearance of an after-dinner reception, due to the great numbers of women who called at their services in the election of Chief Justice Angellotti to the office of Chief Justice of the State.

Judge John D. Murphy of Mono county, candidate for associate justice of the Supreme Court, was a guest of a group of his admirers at a luncheon yesterday at Hotel Alexandria, where arrangements were made to look after Judge Murphy's interests at the election next Tuesday.

France and England have placed large bets for horses in this country. For what is nothing can replace the horse. For other uses, and more particularly for other purposes, the motor can replace the horse.

What we cannot understand in the war is the statement that the allies shipped the Germans and the Germans shipped the allies on the same ship, the same day. We presume it all depends on the press agent.

Isn't it about time for the Democrats to stop trying to hook the people? No convention declared stronger endorsement than the Democrats at the convention, and yet no Congress spent so much money as the Congress elected on the platform. What will the tax-ridden people about it next Tuesday?

Individual Liberty.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] May I be allowed to express my pleasure and gratification on reading in yesterday's Times your indorsement and recommendation to the voting public of our drugless practice bill?

We are fighting for our life, liberty and happiness for the chance not only to earn our living but to do good to our fellow-men, without the fear of arrest or imprisonment. We are also fighting for the right of every person to be allowed, when sick, to call on any school of healing that he or she may choose.

I thank you on behalf of myself and many fellow-workers for your encouraging words, and may you be long in your influence on the side of right and freedom.

There is no Happiness in Marriage Without Love.

Dear Miss Libby: I am a widower 35 years old, keeping company with a young lady of 25. I like her company, and enjoy taking her out, but just can't make up my mind as to whether I want to get married or not.

She is a good girl, and has a position. She lives with her parents, and has a good home, but I don't want to break off entirely with her. I don't want to talk about marriage, but I don't want to break off entirely with her. I don't want to talk about marriage, but I don't want to break off entirely with her.

Give the Fellow One a Chance. Dear Miss Libby: I am a young lady of 21. A young man who has been disappointed in love and not being capable of overcoming same, has gone with his companions and lured him into destruction. He has expressed his love for me, and I have accepted it. I would not believe him, but he is always on my mind. He has declared to me that he will make me a good husband. I don't know what to do. Please advise me.

Do not marry a man with the habit of uprooting his faults. If he has a bad habit, he will not change it before marriage. He would not make good. Give him a chance, and he will make good.

TWAS LOAN, NOT SALE. Man to Whom Diamond in Pawn. Sells It—In Sight to Recover Loss by Own Action.

A diamond valued by one expert at $14990 antedated in the sun rays into Judge Wellborn's court today. It is a splendid gem, as the house of the Miller family of Montana; the product of a miner's hand of fifty years ago.

The stone had graced the finger of Mrs. Mary R. Miller as her engagement ring. It appears she purchased her son, J. R. Miller, in 1910. It was pledged to L. E. Kusi, for $14990 in six months interest at the rate of 1 per cent a month.

The gem was not redeemed, and was sold to George W. Nolan for $11250 and the cash was used to pay the debt. Mr. Kusi set up that he had a bill of sale from Miller for the diamond, but the court held it was a pawn, as contended by Attorney Odell. The court also stated that under the statutes he had examined, Mr. Kusi had failed to serve notice of the time and place of sale in Mr. Miller so that the latter could have an opportunity to attend the sale.

Attorney Goodwin, however, was allowed to file briefs covering a point. The court valued the stone at $445.

NOBODY WANTS SEALS OR MISSIONS VERY MUCH.

Defunct Club may Return to Sacramento.

Kid Mohler Wants a Job as Club Manager.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Hap Hogan denies that he has any intention of buying the San Francisco club and invading northern baseball.

The annual meeting of the Coast league owners adjourned today and Hap Hogan left without making any offer for the purchase of the Seals. It is rumored, however, that Tom Stephens of Los Angeles, has made a tentative offer.

NO OFFERS. J. Cal Ewing and Frank M. Ish stated, after the adjournment, that they would like to dispose of the club, but would not entertain any proposition from any one who would not be likely to conduct the club on proper lines. "Last season," said Mr. Ewing, "we had an offer of $300,000, with a certified check for $50,000 as an evidence of good faith, but we turned down the offer because we did not like the personnel of the intending purchaser."

NO DECISION. The magnates adjourned without disposing of the Sacramento club, whose destinies have been placed in the hands of the following committee: Cal Ewing, Frank Leavitt and A. T. Baum. A member of this committee stated today that they would await propositions from outside cities before making any decision.

Charlie Graham, representing the minority stockholders of the Mission club, before leaving for the Capital City, said that he had not given up hope of retaining the team in Sacramento. "The business men want the team and I think we can arrange the matter," he said.

KID MOHLER IS AFTER A JOB. (BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Kid Mohler, veteran infielder, wants a job managing a ball club and has written to Danny Long from his Los Angeles home, asking for any possible assistance. Mohler says after he was released by the Sacramento club he had figured on the possibility of quitting the game for good and all.

However, a rest seems to have worked wonders with him and he is looking for something to do next year. The ex-ideal has no dreams of playing but he would like to use his experience in shaping up some team.

Killing 'Em Off.

EUROPEAN WAR KNOCKING BOXING SOME HARD BLOWS.

BY DE WITT VAN COTT.

BOXING, like all other sports, has received a knockout blow from the great war in Europe. France is surely out of the game for some time to come, and it will take a generation to revive it.

TOO BAD. This is greatly deplored by all lovers of the game, as the Frenchmen were fast coming to the front, and considering the short time the game has been popular over there, they were making wonderful strides toward the championships in the different classes.

CALIFORNIA IN A SLUMP. (BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 28.—St. Mary's College Rugby team, which was defeated 6-0, by the second California team last Saturday today held the varsity to a 3-3 tie for the entire first half.

The St. Mary's players scored the first try and forced the varsity to defensive playing most of the time. California could not cross the goal line in this period and secured her three points by a penalty goal dropped by Montgomery.

In the second half the varsity routed itself from its slump and scored twenty-one points in a ragged forward game. Individual players showed good form, but the team did not. California has not completely shaken off her slump.

There are only four of our champions that can really be declared high: Johnny Kilbane, the feather; Freddie Welsh, the lightweight; and the winner of the coming Chip-Clabby match in the middleweight class.

Boxing has surely had a great setback as far as class goes in this country, and unless more attention is paid to the real art and science of boxing, the whole game will go by the board.

MILITIAMEN TO HAVE WARSHIP.

The government has given practical assurance that the torpedo destroyer Farragut will be turned over to the use of the Los Angeles divisions of the Naval Reserve and the organization of the new division will be proceeded with. Several naval officers will attend the meeting.

A meeting will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Armory at Exposition Park, at which time and place the new division will be born. A leading spirit in this interesting movement is Morgan Adams, an enthusiastic yachtsman and amateur sailor.

There is every evidence that the personnel of the division will be composed of unusually fine recruits.

In addition to being a patriotic duty, the organization of this new division gives athletic young men a chance to have naval training and all the fun and benefit of yachting at public expense. With a torpedo destroyer always available, naval reserve work will take on a new meaning.

SONDER YACHTS WILL NOT RACE.

KAISERLICHER CLUB OF KIEL WRITES CANCELLING EVENT.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—The International Sonder yacht races, which were to have been held at Kiel between German and American yachts next June, have been cancelled by the Kaiserlicher Yacht Club of Kiel, owing to unsettled conditions in Europe, according to a letter received today by Henry Taggard, secretary of the Eastern Yacht Club.

NEW BOXING CLUB WILL HOLD BOUTS.

The Columbia Athletic Club, which is an organization of young working boys, has taken over the arena and clubrooms of the defunct Jockey Kelly Boxing Club. The new club will give public exhibitions of boxing on Thursday nights.

WEATHER STOPS HARNESS RACES.

MATCH EVENT BETWEEN PACERS IS HALTED BY THE COLD.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

KALAMAZOO (Mich.) Oct. 28.—A match race between the pacing stallions, Directum 7 and William, which was to have been run here this afternoon, was called off because of cold weather. The race was to have been for a purse of $5000.

ROAD HUNTERS WERE SCARED.

GAME WARDENS ARE DECIDED NUISANCE.

ROAD HUNTERS AT BALBOA WERE SCARED TO DEATH, BUT SHOT ANYWAY.

BY THE ROAD HUNTER. Game wardens ought to be compelled by law to wear long peacock feathers in their hats, a cow bell fastened to each foot, and go about yelling, "Look out, I'm a game warden."

As it is now, there is no possible way to tell one of them when you see him, and my nerves are getting frazzled from so many false alarms.

EXPERIENCE. Tuesday night I went down to Balboa with my trusty cannon. In the dark and night I crawled out of bed in the dark and rowed about ten miles before I finally pulled the ship up to the place. I didn't have any difficulty about finding the place, because it looked like a duck hunter's convention. The place was full of row boats and the row boats were full of hunters, waiting for daybreak, and the hunters were full of row boats.

Well, we all sat shivering in the dark. As the first streaks of light came over the hills of the San Joaquin range, we could see that the water was thick with every duck. They seemed to be everywhere.

A PAIX PAIX. Federal regulations, or no Federal regulations, I raised my gun and was

U.S.S. Farragut, the torpedo boat.

Which the government will turn over to the naval militia in Los Angeles. A meeting will be held tonight at the armory at Exposition Park for the organization of an additional division to complete the crew of the destroyer. An opportunity is offered to every young man of good moral and physical condition between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five. This picture was taken of the Farragut at her future station in San Pedro Harbor.

MOVIE HEROINES SKIM THE WAVES.

MOTORBOATS HAVE LOVELY CAPTAINS.

MOVIE HEROINES PLANNING RACES DOWN AT SEAL BEACH.

The dictum has gone forth from the leaders in thrilling feminine sports, the beauties of motion picturedom. No longer shall the racing motor car supply thrills to appetites whetted by the strenuous life before the camera. The speed boats are the thing for 1915, say they, and to captain a slim speedster, tearing out across the racing main, is to be in the very latest of fashions.

RACES COMING. Preparations are already under way for an exciting winter season of the sport. At Seal Beach, where the long reaches of still water bays make an ideal stretch for racing, several speedsters of the local beauties of filmdom are "stabled."

Here exciting contests are weekly occurrences, and here it is whispered will be held an aquatic derby, with the pretty sailors at the wheel of the swift craft, that will make the world of sport sit up and take notice that the girls are strictly in the game.

CLASS HERE. Miss Ivy Crosthwaite, as captain, crew and mechanic of a trim little speedboat at Seal Beach, is touted as a sure winner when the speed trials materialize. Breakdowns on the sea have no terrors for this chic mechanician, who speeds over the bay waters both day and night with equal confidence.

It is rumored that Mabel Normand has also been bitten by the aquatic speed bug, and will shortly dispute Miss Crosthwaite's supremacy.

KATE, TOO. When questioned on the subject, Kathryn Williams, the heroine of a thousand half-raising film adventures, smiles and shakes her head, but the same rumor connects her name with a long, powerful craft on the ways at a local builder's.

Pretty little Miss Violet McMillan of the Oz company, is an accomplished pilot, being accounted one of the best of the New York speed colony on the Hudson.

With them are starters in the aquatic derby, competing with the many other athletic sailors of the picture colonies, it would look like some affair. Go to it, girls! Let the best man win.

Capt. Ivy Crosthwaite, who is alleged to be in training for a motor boat race at Bay City. If this picture looks as though the lovely Ivy knows anything about running motor boats, then this Pink Sheet is printed in Greek. We are prepared to admit, however, that Capt. Crosthwaite is some looker and that Bay City has a press agent.

EXPERIENCE. Tuesday night I went down to Balboa with my trusty cannon. In the dark and night I crawled out of bed in the dark and rowed about ten miles before I finally pulled the ship up to the place. I didn't have any difficulty about finding the place, because it looked like a duck hunter's convention. The place was full of row boats and the row boats were full of hunters, waiting for daybreak, and the hunters were full of row boats.

Well, we all sat shivering in the dark. As the first streaks of light came over the hills of the San Joaquin range, we could see that the water was thick with every duck. They seemed to be everywhere.

A PAIX PAIX. Federal regulations, or no Federal regulations, I raised my gun and was going to let him have it, when the fellow in the next boat to me said in a hoarse whisper, "Look out, that guy's a game warden."

"Which guy?" I said. But the fellow in the next boat only whispered, "He still; he's looking right over here."

I tried to squint around out of the corner of my eyes, but I couldn't see anyone looking. But when a fellow in a boat near by drew a bead on one of the flocks, I passed the word along to him. He yanked down his gun in a hurry and asked me which was the game warden. I didn't like to appear

On the Mat. WRESTLING AT L.A.A.C. TONIGHT PROMISES ACTION

NINE wrestling matches are scheduled for this evening at the L.A.A.C. The best amateur wrestlers are to take part and there is a lot of friendly rivalry between the San Diego and Pasadena boys and the L.A.A.C. members.

Ladies will be admitted and judging from the past interest they have taken in the sport, there promises to be a large attendance of the fair sex.

BIG EVENT. At the Olympic Club, some years ago, the wrestling nights were one of the social events of the northern city and it was a common thing to see several thousand ladies present at the tournaments.

The amateur rules forbid all dangerous and unfair holds, and as the bouts are limited to the best two out of three falls and of only ten minutes duration, the contests are full of enough action to satisfy the most exacting critics.

The eighteen young men who are to compete have been training faithfully for the past two months and each and all are in fine condition.

LOOK GOOD. The bouts have been carefully matched and many close contests are sure to be seen. The public will be admitted and the bouts will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Here is the complete programme: R. King, L.A.A.C. versus W. West, L.A.A.C.; 125 pounds. J. J. Huemerich, L.A.A.C. versus C. McDonald, L.O.O.F.; 125 pounds. E. West, L.A.A.C. versus M. N. Clark, unattached; 125 pounds. W. E. Chisholm, L.A.A.C. versus L. M. Van Lee, unattached; 125 pounds. W. Huber, L.A.A.C. versus B. McIntyre, Oxnard; 145 pounds. F. R. Scobee, L.A.A.C. versus J. Hunt, L.O.O.F.; 155 pounds. E. Daggett, L.A.A.C. versus G. P. Shaw, San Diego; 155 pounds. R. C. Webber, L.A.A.C. versus E. Patrick, San Diego; heavyweight. R. D. Elliott, L.A.A.C. versus C. Conner, Pasadena, A. C.; heavyweight.

TROJANS GAY, TIGERS GRIM.

Laughter and Confidence at U.S.C. Camp.

Determination and Fight at Occidental.

Livernash may be Out for the Season.

BY HOWARD W. ANGUS.

The great southern football battle of the fall is only two days away. At both U.S.C. and Occidental the nervous tension of the students is drawing to its tightest pitch. That same thrill and breathless suspense that grip a theater audience just before the climax of a play, can be felt at both institutions.

The two varieties continue to practice in secret. The students are allowed in the bleachers at U.S.C., and they form in silent groups along the sidelines at Occidental. All strangers are religiously kept off the field.

POLICE.

The Trojans have special cops who make regular beats of inspection. Out at Occidental where there is no fence to keep the outsider where he belongs, the students have formed themselves into a sort of vigilance committee. Every avenue of approach is watched. The utmost secrecy is kept. The workings of the varieties are under a bushel.

But this much has leaked out that the last scrimmage have been held: that the Trojans went to it hammer and tongs yesterday afternoon and that the Tigers took things easy, the variety devoting all its time to signal drill.

AT BOVARD.

The Occidental Tigers will practice at Bovard Field today. Coach Glass has extended their stay there. Last night after an afternoon of hard, grueling scrimmage, the Tigers gathered in a classroom for a two-hour chalk talk. These are long, nervous days for Oxy.

The difference between the way the two varieties and the two student bodies are taking the coming game is so marked that it cannot escape notice. The Trojans face the coming struggle with smiles, in a sort of relaxed way. The Tigers are all tension—grim, silent, taciturn.

CONFIDENT.

The Trojans realize that a hard game is ahead. Anyone of them is willing to admit that it will be a tough game, that either variety may win by a low or large score. But they have the easy way of conquerors. Every team they have met has fallen.

The Occidental game means to them one more hard battle, one more victory, one more advance on the stronghold of southern football. Not without cause they doubt not that they will win.

The Tigers realize that a bitter struggle is ahead. One of them is willing to admit that it will be a terrible game. They have the determined, hardened way of those who have been forced to fight. They have felt the bitterness of defeat. The U.S.C. game means to them one more desperate attempt to hurl the Occidental back, the final defense of their capital. They are not certain that they will win, but they do know that if they fall they will go down fighting.

WOMEN CHEER.

Last night the Trojans dressed in their training quarters amid chatter and joking. Coach Glass stepped to the gym door and saw the women of U.S.C. in the bleachers singing songs, led by a woman leader. He turned to the players and said, "Hurry it up, boys, the girls are out to see us work. With jobs and muck bustle the players and coaches when they formed on the field the girls gave a yell for the girls. Then they ran through signals while Coach Glass worked with the scrums and the freshmen drilled under Irvine. Part of the time the variety stood in a group talking, waiting for their coach.

EASY GOING.

Then they scrimmaged against the freshmen. There was no tackling. They were working out a theoretical defense for the Tiger attack. Then they began running through their plays. The freshmen and the variety played a game while the variety worked. It was the variety that at times turned to watch the game, the freshmen nor scrubs that turned to watch the variety.

Out at Occidental it was very different. The men dressed hurriedly in the training quarters. There was no kidding, not so much laughing. Pete Poole rubbed down the men that had bruises while the others talked over the coming game seriously.

ON THE JOB.

The men went out on the field and buckled down to work. From the time they started until they finished it was work. They said little to each other. They were training, trying, every moment. It was dark when they came in. They rushed home to eat and were back for the chalk talk. Coach Pipe does not joke with the men now. He says what he has to say in short sentences. He goes over everything just as carefully as Coach Glass does, but more grimly.

GRIM EARNESTNESS.

Had the women of Occidental been out in a body cheering, the Trojans would not have cheered back. They would hardly have known that they were there. They would have given the co-eds a glance and forgotten them in the intensity of their work. They are not less courteous than the Trojans. Before their Whittier game they would have done just what the Trojans did—cheer back.

There is indeed, a great difference between the way the Trojans and the Tigers are taking the game. The Trojans have the easy, cheerful, enthusiastic manner of those who have conquered. They work to the light songs of an invading army in war time. The Tigers are like an army fighting for their homes. Their song is "Fight, Fight, Fight for Occidental." It is a stirring, but not a bubbling, tune.

CONFIDENT.

Tonight the Trojans will hold a monster bonfire. Speeches, rallies, songs, burning of the Tiger in effigy will make them merry. All orations will probably end with "We will beat Occidental Saturday."

Tomorrow night the Trojans will hold their rally. There, too, will be speeches, rally songs. Only one speech will end, "We MUST beat U.S.C."

All of the Trojans with the exception of Livernash are in shape for Saturday's game. Lund was out working last night at half and will start the game in "Husker's" place. Livernash's shoulder is out of joint. The doctor has told him he is out for the year. Some of the men feel a trifle stiff from the Whittier game, but none are seriously injured.

All of the Trojans, with the exception of Bala, the end, are in condition. Bala has been troubled with blood poison. He expects to be in shape for the game.

BRESNAHAN NOT YET AN OUTLAW.

ROGER SAYS TERMS ARE GOOD BUT HE HAN'T MADE THE JUMP.

HOW IT LOOKS TO ANGUS

all on it, it is sprung. On it often hangs victory.

Get Together.

Los Angeles High and Poly have at last agreed that Washington Park is the place for tomorrow's game. Los Angeles High was long in consenting, afraid that it might favor the Mechanics.

It would have been foolish to let such a trivial thing as that take the game away from the best park for a game in the city. The wide spread of grand stand and bleachers at the park will seat all without crowding. The Mechanics will gain no advantage from playing on the field once or twice. To the outsider all this

L.A.A.C. RUGGERS AFTER CLUB TITLE NEXT SEASON.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE]

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA,

Oct. 28.—The California Rugby Union extended the glad hand to the Los Angeles Athletic Club last night. The northern body would welcome the L.A.A.C. into its ranks.

During the discussion of the club championship series, the L.A.A.C. became a pivot upon which turned the entire decision. In determining contestants for the trophy it was proposed that Los Angeles ruggers be invited to join the union and compete for championship.

The local clubs were much in favor of inviting the L.A.A.C. to enter the series, but it was found that the southerners would only have four days in which to prepare and submit an eligibility list.

As membership would have to be acted upon before the list was approved it was felt that the L.A.A.C. would have to be dropped from the series for this year.

But though the participation of the L.A.A.C. team is out of the question this season, the sentiments expressed at the meeting indicate the most friendly feeling for the Los Angeles club. Very likely an attempt will be made to include Los Angeles in the series of 1915.

Club Battles.

Northern interclub championship will be fought out between the Titans, Olympic Club and the Barbarians. The Barbs and Titans play the first game November 23.

No Referee Yet.

It is now less than three weeks until the California-Stanford game and no referee is in sight. Managers Stoen and Wilcox have had at least a dozen conferences and still no man is named. It is too late to send for Hill from Australia, and no local man worry and figuring strikes one as sort of funny.

Same Team.

Practically the same team and the same L. A. line-up will face Poly as faced Manual. Fishburn may be put into first-five and James put in the scrum. In that event Dell will be put at center-three and Mills at wing.

Although Lenke has been playing on the second team the most of this week, it would surprise no one if the husky player would be in tomorrow's game. His fall from grace looks very much as if Coach Featherstone was giving him a lesson—just like the grade teachers put a bad boy to shame by making him stand in a corner.

New Official.

C. E. Lieber may help solve the dearth in officials. He played tackle for a time of referee and the referee indicate that Patterson, who handled the Pasadena High team just after it combined with Throop and officiated in the south last season.

It is claimed for him that he understands the game thoroughly, follows the play close and is a reliable and efficient referee or umpire.

Blase Out.

"Jumbo" Blase, who locked last year's scrum together and who has been out of the game for the greater part of the season with a painful muscle bruise to his shoulder, may not be able to play Saturday as the coaches have expected. Henry Pettigill of Los Angeles is making a strong bid for his berth.

The outside squad now numbers 140 men who hope to play on the "variety" "before they graduate" but who are willing to work hard throughout the entire season without hope of reward this year or next year or may be even the next.

These cut him score than 9196.50.

Now he owns a 1915 Maxwell with all these modern features and a dozen others.

This "Wonder Car" with Electric Bell-Brake and Electric Lights only $550 cash.

Veterans Fall.

The failure of Hunt, Boardman and Gibbs to land on the training table is causing fans to comment. Just now the table is seating men for every department of the team except full-back. California is weak at this position and perhaps Coach Schaefer figures that the training table may be an incentive for harder work among candidates for full.

Exit the Track.

California's elder track, grown old and worn with thirty years' continuous service, will pass on to the happy hunting ground of good elder tracks next Saturday.

Walter Christie, for whom the track has worked for nearly fifteen years, is to be chief mourner. He will direct the rites, and lead his 200 pallbearers to spots made famous by records in times gone by. By February the new track will be rounding into shape, much larger and better equipped than the old path. But grade and many students will miss the old oak-grown cinders as they miss a departed friend.

STANFORD SQUAD REDUCED AGAIN.

ONLY FIFTY MEN NOW REMAIN ELIGIBLE FOR FIRST TEAMS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 27.—A cut in the variety Rugby squad, injuries with their accompanying shifts in the personnel of the teams and the addition of two men to the training table make this week one of speculation on the Stanford "farm."

SQUAD CUT.

Coach Brown today sent eight men to the outer turf, reducing the variety squad to fifty. This is the second cut of the season. However, two men, "Jack" Bacon, of Los Angeles, who suited for U.S.C. last year, and C. J. Singh, have been sent to the inner turf and will be given a chance to vie with the other members of the variety squad for honors on the first and second teams.

"She" Burns and Frank Walker have been promoted to the training table as a result of the showing they made in last Saturday's games. Burns played on the sidelines last year as an understudy to the half-back position.

A STAR.

He starred at wing against Santa Clara Saturday. Frank Walker captained this season's "baby" team from the half-back berth. He is the only freshman to go on the training table this year.

The condition of "rank" Reeves, of San Bernardino, variety wing, whose right knee was dislocated and a cartilage badly torn in Saturday's contest with Santa Clara, is causing much worry to Trainer Maloney. Burns and Templeton are contesting for his place.

Blase Out.

"Jumbo" Blase, who locked last year's scrum together and who has been out of the game for the greater part of the season with a painful muscle bruise to his shoulder, may not be able to play Saturday as the coaches have expected. Henry Pettigill of Los Angeles is making a strong bid for his berth.

BRITISH SCORES ARRIVE AT LAST

News Show American Was Clean.

Opponents Didn't Win at Single Range.

Woman Makes Fine Scores in the Match.

The detailed scores and photographs of the Rifle Club's Federation of England team have been received by the local shots of the Los Angeles Rifle and Revolver Club. The British shooting, which was held in London, was won by the Los Angeles club, with a score of sixty-eight points.

LOCALS EXCEL.

The men firing for Los Angeles, with poor scores among them, scored 41 for the offhand position, 41 for the high score. The Los Angeles team made the team out of the offhand firing averaged 35, with a high score. Among the others the Los Angeles club were won by sixty-eight points.

INDIANAPOLIS SPEEDWAY HEADS BREAK WITH A.A.A.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—Owing to the treatment given one of the manufacturers who held a test on the Speedway, the Indianapolis Speedway owners today decided to appoint a board of engineers to conduct all tests and supervise all work done in speed trials. The American Automobile Association will be ignored and no attempt will be made to get a sanction.
Men close to the owners of the track say that the plan to stage unsanctioned tests was only a warning to the men in charge of the national association and that by the time the annual race is held, May 29, 1915, the local people will have succeeded in breaking the bond that holds race drivers to the A.A.A., and that the big event will be held under a sanction to be granted by a new organization to be formed in Indianapolis, Chicago and Coast cities.
One of the men who have been appointed to the board of engineers announced today that the reason for the split was the failure of the A.A.A. to provide protection for the builder of automobiles.
The American Automobile Association is run by men in the East and the Middle and Far West have revolted against the treatment accorded by the easterners.

Harvard vs. Michigan.

MICHIGAN TEAM
VERY CONFIDENT.

THOUGH YOST IS GLOOMY THEY THINK THEY WILL BE THE VICTORS.

ST. THOMAS (Ont.) Oct. 28.—The University of Michigan football eleven, twenty-five strong, tonight are heading for the land of crimson warriors. "Gen. Optimism" also joined the party at Ann Arbor and will stick, according to programme, until Harvard has been paid back with interest for the three defeats of long ago.
Coach Yost is the only one in the party who has not given in to the general enthusiasm. The Wolverine strategist puts on an air of moodiness not at all in keeping with the general outlook as the players see it.
The men who will stand the knocks
Saturday at Harvard are supremely confident of victory and believe that all the bad football has been gotten out of their system. They know exactly how they are going to line up in the battle, at least they think they do. Yost, however, may make them guess again.
This is the way, then, the battle front looks tonight. Benton and Staats, ends; Reiman and Cochran, quarter-backs; Watson and McNeil, captains; Haynford, center; Maulbetoch and Lyons, half-backs; Hughtin, quarter-back, and Sperry, full-back.
The team will make its headquarters at Auburndale, just outside of Boston, and if Coach Yost desires, his team may practice in the Harvard stadium, but the chances are that he will decline the courtesy.

HOWARD FLEMING WILL NOT PLAY.

EX-CALIFORNIA CAPTAIN WAS SIMPLY TAKING SOME EXERCISE.

BERKELEY, Oct. 28.—Although the appearance in uniform with the University of California football squad yesterday of Howard W. Fleming, one of the stars of last year's team, gave rise to the hope that he again would be a candidate for the varsity honors, rumor was given its quietus today.
Fleming, who resigned the captaincy of the varsity team early this season because his studies would not grant him time to devote to athletics, has found that he will be unable to appear in this year's line-up.

WOLVERTON MAY MANAGE OAKLETS.

LEAVITT ADMITS THAT HARRY IS A MIGHTY FINE
MANAGER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—That the question of securing Harry Wol-verton as manager of the Oakland baseball club, as reported, was a possibility, has never been discussed in any serious manner tonight by Frank W. Leavitt, president of the Oakland baseball team.
"The question has never been discussed up to the present," he said.
"We have received too overtures from Wolverton and have made no proposition to him. Our directors will meet within a few days, and then possibly some action will be taken, one way or another. I do not know much of Wolverton except what we all know—that he is an exceptionally fine baseball manager."
Which is a strong assertion, and perhaps means that the Oakland club would consider itself fortunate to secure the services of Wolverton.

twenty-five-ton tractor is built in Los Angeles and is the first product of a factory which is to be enlarged to a capacity of twenty such tractors
a month.
This tractor was sold on the opening day of the exhibit and is to be delivered as soon as another can be built to take its place. There is enough capital back of the company to insure its success in the manufacturing field and the output is to be marketed on a large scale with men back of the proposition who are alive to the possibilities of the business of motor truck building.
This show has proved that there is a wide field in Southern California for just such a product as the Homer.

QUAIL HUNTERS ALL SUCCESSFUL.

QUARTETTE GOT LIMITS UP AROUND THE HEMET COUNTRY.

Owen Council, W. W. Cockins, Frank Gregory and Dr. Munyon have returned from a quail-hunting trip in the Hemet-Perris country. They report that quail are thick as bees. They all got the limit with ease, and have great sport. One difficulty of shooting that they encountered, however,
was that of shooting from the side hills. At the sound of the first shot, the birds make a running jump for the hills and thereafter, the hunter has to stand on one ear and shoot from all sorts of impossible positions.

WILLS TRYING TO DODGE LANGFORD.

MANAGER OF BIG BARRY SAYS
NO DATE AGREED
YET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—That Harry Wills will not be prepared to box Sam Langford before Jimmy Coffroth's club on Friday night, November 12, was the announcement made tonight by Ed Barnes, who is looking after the interests of the New Orleans negro. Barnes claimed that when he dickered with Coffroth for the match there was no definite understanding as to the date, and affirms that he cannot be ready before Thanksgiving day.
Coffroth, on the other hand, insists that there was a definite understanding with Barnes as to the date, based on the refusal of Joe Woodman to accept any later date than November 12.
Barnes talks of seeing Coffroth tomorrow to straighten out what he terms a misunderstanding, and there is likely to be something exciting crop up if the pair get together.

SOMEBODY ON HOWDY HAS TO TRAVEL WITH COYOTE.

Not for Us.

A TRAIN time for the "Howdy special" draws near, local race enthusiasm increases day by day, and from all appearances there will be a larger delegation of local motor fans present when the winner flashes across the line at Phoenix than at any previous race.
To Frank P. Harris, manager of agencies for the Greer-Robbins Company, goes the distinction of being one of the first of the local colony to set out for the southern country.
Harris left for a visit to the various Hupmobile agents in Arizona this week and will spend a great deal of time with the interest in the trip to the time for the "special" to roll into the yards.
Before leaving Harris recalled an interesting contest between A. C. Robbins and himself at the time of the race last year. The two had gone to visit a friend in Phoenix that night
what he called a "domesticated" coyote. As Harris and Robbins looked at the little animal of the previous year word led to another, and finally Robbins wagged that he could catch the "hungry-looking collier" quicker than Harris.
He set out on the job, but the discouraging manner in which the animal accepted Mr. Robbins's services resulted, to say the least, in severe frustration to Harris. The police did not interfere, however, but all bets were declared off.
"Why, these are enough Hupmobile deals for you to close in the cactus country to keep you busy for sixty days," said Robbins to Harris, as the latter was leaving on Wednesday.
"And I'll bet you get into Phoenix next even in time to see the 'Howdy special' pulling back for Los Angeles."

BIG MOTOR TRUCK SHOW CLOSES TOMORROW NIGHT.

THE motor truck show now being held in the Shrine Auditorium has proved an unqualified success so far as interest in the commercial vehicle is concerned. Perhaps nine out of every ten visitors to the show have been vitally interested in the motor truck, and have proven live prospects for one of the dealers. The sales record for the show probably will run into hundreds in the last analysis.
The display of commercial vehicles is unusually complete. The great variety is perhaps best illustrated by one of the contrasts of the show which has brought everyone's eye. A tiny electric delivery wagon of a capacity of 150 pounds stands almost beneath a huge six-ton dump truck, the largest machine on the floor.

POMONA FRESHMEN BEAT COVINA HIGH.

YOUNGSTERS PUT UP PLUCKY
FIGHT, BUT HAD NO CHANCE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
CLAREMONT, Oct. 28.—The Pomona freshmen defeated Covina High School here this afternoon, 30 to 6.
This is the first time Covina High has turned out, and it put up a plucky fight all the way, although the freshmen had all the better of the strident argument.
Covina made its only score on a forward pass and a long sixty and run around the freshmen's defense.
The freshmen made their scores by taking the ball down the field and pushing it over.
The blue varsity scrimmaged with the scrubs this afternoon and ran over six touchdowns in short order.
The varsity was moving at the fastest and surest rate it has gone yet this season. The same with which it shoved the scrubs around was highly encouraging to the students.
The freshmen will play Long Beach on Friday and the varsity Redlands University on Saturday.
Coach Stanton is not going down to the U.C.-Occidental game, but is going to stay with his varsity. He has not forgotten how Redlands played his 1913 varsity to a score of and almost defeated it while he was watching the Occidental Tigers work.

CUBAN WONDER SETS UP NEW

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Alfred De Oro, world's champion at threecushion billiards, defeated George W. Moore of this city, 50 to 25, in sixty-one innings here tonight in the first of three nights' play for the title. De Oro made a high run of 15 a record for a championship match. Moore's high run was 8.

INMAN TAKES A LEAD ON HOPPE.

ENGLISHMAN'S MARCH AT HIS OWN GAME IS NOT SO VERY BIG.

TORONTO (Ont.) Oct. 28.—Melbourne Inman, English billiard champion, and Willie Hoppe, the United States balk line title holder, commenced their series of mixed style matches here today. The play was devoted to the English game at which Inman demonstrated his superiority by defeating Hoppe 55 to 172 in the afternoon and 635 to 198 in the evening. Inman's best run in the afternoon was 154 and at night was 172. Hoppe's highest score in the afternoon was 30, while in the evening his best run was 49.

feated the National stars 1 to 0 in their exhibition game here today.

AT THE SHRINE.

BIG MOTOR TRUCK SHOW CLOSES TOMORROW NIGHT.

The light truck has a large share of the interest of the crowd. Light delivery wagons for all types of work are shown. From these up to the heaviest of freighters, the line is very complete.
The electric delivery wagon is having a large place in the exhibit. Several companies are displaying electric models. Among these are two built in Los Angeles, the Beardsley and the Pacific Electric.
Among the internal combustion types the Moerland, another Los Angeles product, has the largest space.
Four models are shown, and they are adapted for many different kinds of work.
The accessory exhibits in the balcony continue to draw a great deal of attention. They are featuring truck accessories as well as pleasure car fittings this week. The show will close tomorrow night.

Road Hunt-ers Scared.

Like a booby so I just said, "Over there," and let it go at that.
WAKING UP.
Pretty soon the ducks began to stretch and yawn. You could hear them say to each other, "Well, so long, guy; I guess I will get up and go to work." And there we had to sit and watch them taking flight and leaving for the duck club. Some of them few right past my nose, but all I could do was to duck. It was still fifteen minutes before sunrise.
At last one fellow couldn't stand it any longer. "If there's any game warden here he can come over and get me," he yelled, and with that he let fly and brought down a duck. Say, in about two seconds it sounded like a battle. Ducks were falling everywhere and guns were banging all over the shop.
FOILED.
When the first flight was past we all huddled down, resignedly, and waited for the game warden to pinch us. But nothing happened. Everybody sat in his seat and gazed suspiciously at everybody else. It finally burst upon us that no game warden was on the job.
Somebody yelled, "Come on, fellows;
there ain't no game warden and there ain't no limits, neither." Then we went after the ducks for fair. You see, it isn't often we get a chance.
I got my limit and then some.

C. WHITE GETS AN ULTIMATUM.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 28.— Tired of complaints from the camp of Charley White on the weight question, officials of the Queensberry Athletic Club, which has the White-Fredie Wells bout carded for November 9, served notice on the Chicago boxer today that unless he gets busy with his training at once, the bout will be called off.
This action followed the receipt of a wire from White in which he declared he would not box unless the weight was 125 pounds at 3 o'clock.
Wells objects to this figure,
but is willing to compromise.

Only a few days in each season; the clubs get the rest; so I would hate to have the game warden find out what we did up there on the lake.
I got my limit and then some.

TWO KILLED
IN TRAGEDIES.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—Frank Mudd, proprietor of a lively stable here, is not expected to live as the result of a shooting which occurred in his barn this morning.

Mudd had an altercation with Alfredo Espinoza, one of his men, ending in Espinoza shooting Mudd after the stableman had struck him with a curry-comb. The bullet passed through Mudd's neck, injured the spinal column. Mudd is not expected to live.

Mark Peronini, a well-known dayman in the Cayote section, was instantly killed in a runaway on the York grade today.

Nellie Bachmann, an Indian woman, and the flames rose ten feet in the air as they burned every stitch of clothing from her body. She was seized by men attracted by the commotion and wrapped in blankets and taken to the County Hospital. It is thought she will not recover.

CHEMIST PUTS
LOCK ON CEMENT.TESTED MATERIALS FOR HAR-BOR WORK UNDER SEAL.

Commission is Determined No Scandal Shall Arise Over Concrete Construction Under Its Control Similar to that Developed in Third-street Tunnel Paving.

Fulfilling the orders of President
Woodman of the Harbor Commission,
Henry C. Kayser, chemist for the harbor work, has placed an official seal upon that portion of the warehouse
at Seventeenth and Center streets, San Pedro, used by the Fairchild-Gilmore-Wilton Company wherein is stored tested cement to be used in the paving of roads as a part of the general scheme for harbor development.

This is the first step of this kind ever taken in local official circles.
The Harbor Commission is determined there shall be no occasion for any scandal over the cement work under its control similar to that which recently was developed in the paving of the Third-street tunnel. It proposes that hereafter all cement for use at the harbor must be placed under seal after being tested, and that the materials must be closely checked as withdrawn, so that there may be no question as to their quality.

I have instructed the men at the harbor that they must be absolutely sure of the character of every parcel of cement used in the work of this department," said President Woodman yesterday. "We shall insist on the strictest application of the orders given. We do not propose to take any chances on inferior materials going into the work under our control. This placing of the cement under seal is in accordance with the general instructions I have given, and this policy will be continued."

Chemist Kayser has gone to Colton to make tests on 2500 barrels of cement to be used in the extension of the Canal-street paving. About 4200 barrels of cement will be required for the concrete work on Fourteenth street and the road to the Municipal Dock No. 1.

TO POINT FIRMEN.
EASY GRADE AVAILABLE.

Members of the Harbor Commission and representatives of the City Engineer's department went to San Pedro yesterday to inspect the possible routes for a roadway to Point Firmen that will be available when heavy hauling necessary in installing the government fortifications.

Auto trucks have been put into commission to determine the effect of the grades and yesterday afternoon President Woodman of the Harbor Commission and other members of the commission went to inspect the proposed route available without the necessity of a heavy outlay, or the creation of a new roadway, as has been suggested, through the property of the San Pedro Land Company.

President Woodman expressed a personal preference for the route by way of Pacific avenue and Thirty-eighth street, stating this gives an easy grade and the distance is not enough longer than the proposed route to make any material difference in the haul. He stated that all this route would require would be the filling of the road. He will confer with Mr. Raymond, the United States Engineer, today, in an effort to reach a conclusion that will be amicable to all parties interested.

CITY NOT LIABLE.

ARROYO SECO FLOOD LOSSES.
Twenty-two damage claims have been filed with the Board of Public Works by property owners along the Arroyo Seco who suffered losses through the floods of last winter and spring. These damage claims total $51,143.30.

The board referred the claims to the City Attorney and it was advised by him yesterday that the material pertaining to the losses is so conflicting that the city's liability is not clearly shown. The board denied the claims, and the only recourse of the property owners will be to civil suits.

It is asserted by the persons damaged that their losses were due to faulty construction of bridges that went out and thus diverted the current to the banks and caused the entering away of the banks and the loss of houses and lots. The City Attorney's office contends that the bridges were of proper construction and were properly maintained, but that the loss was due to an unusual and unexpected season of floods.

PLANNING ROUTE.
FOR PROPOSED RAILWAY.

Representatives of the Glen Alta Improvement Association and the Herndon Improvement Association will meet with the officers of the Schutzen Park Association Sunday afternoon to decide upon the best route to map out for the proposed railway through that territory.

On behalf of the improvement associations, Robert Theodore Hale and Paul Yesser have made application for the city railway franchise and the notice of sale is now being prepared by the City Attorney.

The route proposed is from North Broadway and Pritchard street northeasterly on Pritchard to Mercury street;
thence on Mercury to Boundary street;
thence north on Boundary to Schutzen Park; thence through the McNeill property to Herndon; thence on Walnut avenue to the South Pasadena city boundary.

In Memory of Ex-Councilman.
Resolutions of respect to the memory of former Councilman Samuel Rees, whose death occurred last Saturday, were introduced yesterday at Council session by Councilman Bryant and unanimously adopted. In these resolutions appreciation of the character and work of the former member of the Council is expressed, and his share in past years for the promotion of public improvements are set forth.

Would Sell Ten Parcels.

The Public Service Commission sent to the City Council yesterday a request that ten parcels of land owned by the city in connection with the water department, but not now needed
in this connection, be offered for sale to the highest bidder. A minimum price is fixed on each parcel, the total amounting to $12,425. Some of this property consists of city lots,
some is located in outside territory adjacent to the city, and others are along the course of the Los Angeles aqueduct.

May Proceed with Tunnel.

Chief Engineer Muhlenberg and Special Counsel Mathews appeared before the Board of Public Works yesterday, on behalf of the Public Service Commission, to request that the commission be authorized to proceed to construct the tunnel through the San Francisco Canyon to provide a water way for the aqueduct water, instead of using the natural water course for this stream.

The statement was made that the Public Service Commission will have about $6000 per month that will be available for the carrying forward of this tunnel work, and if the Public Works Board will give the desired permission, the work will be undertaken within a short time.

The subject was referred to Commissioner Osborne for investigation and report as to the desirability of this in connection with the aqueduct power project developments. It is quite probable that the permission will be given, as the Public Service Commission would have full control of similar work that is to be carried on when the power bonds are sold.

Municipalisms.

The City Council authorized the Board of Public Works yesterday to advertise for bids for the construction of a sewerage disposal plant at the foot of McFarland street, Wilmington.
This plant is to handle the sewage for all the area of Wilmington east of Broadway. Its estimated cost is $1800.

Protests against the installation of an ornamental lighting system on Harvard boulevard, from Sixteenth to Washington streets, were denied by the City Council yesterday, and the ordinance for the work was adopted under a suspension of the rules. This improvement is to cost an average of $1.50 per fifty-foot lot, the total cost being $1642.40, which includes the expenses of lighting for one year. Thereafter the will be $3.50 per year for each fifty-foot lot.

Because next Tuesday will be election day, the Police Commission will hold its regular session at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The Los Angeles Manufacturing Company is to furnish the city nine new carriages and to repair and reconstruct forty-five wagons now in use.
They may properly handle the delivery of carriages at the new plant on Lenard street.

The Board of Public Works yesterday awarded to Andrew J. Javich, the contract for the sewer in Fifth street from Van Ness to Westminster avenue for $5200, and allowed him 110 days within which to complete the work.

It also awarded to B. Sufalo the contract for the sewer in Fifth-sixth street for $450.

The contract for the sewer from Nor-

GRIDER PEACE
DOVE ALIGHTS.WIFE DENIED DECREE; COURT FINDS FOR HUSBAND.

Allegations of Extreme Cruelty on His Part Entirely Unsubstantiated—
He, Like Warrior Tired of Strife, Willing to Pledge and Forget, Except for Webster.

The many-angled separate maintenance suit of Mrs. Zora A. Grider against Leroy M. Grider, proprietor of Birdland, came to an end in Judge Monroe's court yesterday with a denial to Mrs. Grider of a decree.
The court found that there was absolutely no ground for a decree on the allegation of extreme cruelty. It was found from the evidence that Mrs.
Idella Moore, the daughter, was falsely and maliciously accusing attempts of Willard M. Webster, a married man with children. She had obtained an interlocutory decree from Mr. Moore.

He found that Mrs. Grider knew that Mr. Webster was paying his daughter to attend to her work,
her for coming into court and complaining of the precautions Mr.
Grider took to prevent Mr. Webster coming to his house.

A peace agreement was in evidence and a letter from Mrs. Grider to her daughter from which it appeared things were going on nicely. But this was some time ago. Mr. Grider had told his son, Charles, that as he was the heir to the business, he should make a name for himself.

By the same token it was the son who wrote his father a letter from Arizona, informing him of the alleged misconduct of his mother. Charles had not previously spoken to his father for several years.

This letter, dated last September, revealed a condition which Mrs.
Grider said he expected. He did not read the letter, but took it to his attorney. Previous to writing it Charles had been friendly with his mother.

The letter was read by the court and told how Mrs. Grider was at the shack of Alex Denny, although it developed that she slept under a sawney outside of the work.

Under the peace agreement Mr.
Grider offered to feed his son property provided he did not place a mortgage on it. He also offered to deed his daughter property on condition that she gave up Webster, whom she had been keeping in the army.

It developed that when Mrs. Grider signed the deeds she knew that her daughter was determined to marry him.

Webster was the thorn in Mr.
Grider's flesh. He had told him if he ever entered his home again he would kill him. Alex Denny, all he declared he was willing to live with her.

"Are you willing to take her back and live happily?" he was asked by Attorney Appel.

"Yes, I want kind treatment," was the reply.

The charges of intoxication testified to by mother and daughter were contradicted by many neighbors and friends of Mr. Grider. He appeared worn with anxiety and testified like a man tired of a battle. He declared he wanted peace. Though all his demeanor was a contempt for Webster.

"Mrs. Grider paid no attention to her husband," commented the court.
"She did not tell him she was going to make an investment in an Arizona mine with another man as partner. Mr. Grider had a perfect right to employ guards to keep Webster away from his home."

"OH, MY VESTS."

HIS "LADY KILLERS."

"How can I break hearts without my beautiful vests?" complained Vincent Enriquez when his wife, Margaret Enriquez, told him it was impossible to dry his clothing so that she could iron them.

"He had beautiful vests," she testified in his divorce suit before Judge Jackson yesterday. "He would wear them to court his lady friends. He

TEST SALARY CASE.

The City Board of Education, through Hartley Shaw, yesterday
asked leave to intervene in the suit of Miss Evarene Mayne, but the request was denied. The board is opposed to County Superintendent Kep-

the controversy between the board and Judge Hewitt granted the motion and a further hearing of the case was

The warrant was drawn for $120.
Mr. Keppele declined to approve it.
Miss Mayne asked for a writ of man-

FOR CARE OF ORANGES.

The freeze of 1913 and the consequent demoralization of the orange market was reflected in a suit tried yesterday in Judge Shaw's court and submitted on points of law.

The Randolph Fruit Company sued
B. C. Stratton to recover $471.47 repended for washing and packing oranges. Mr. Stratton contended the packing-house did not handle the fruit as an independent contractor, but as an agent of the company, and requested the court to find for the company.

The proceeds of sales, he said, did not equal those prices. He sued on a cross-complaint to recover $11,122.50, which represented the loss of the oranges between the price he received and what he alleged he should have been paid.
The case was continued for a hearing shortly after the heavy freeze in January of last year.

AFTER DIRECT EVIDENCE.

More than 300 letters, papers, documents, affidavits, telegrams and detective reports, being the result of an investigation by Attorney Francis B. B.
Roland in the Gorham Tufts, Jr., case, were made the basis of an application
by Mrs. Jenny Henry Scrantom Roe Tufts yesterday for absolute possession.

This mass of evidence is desired by her counsel, Attorney Four, in the suit brought by Mr. Roland to recover $4750 professional fees as counsel for Mrs. Tufts. Judge Tufts, who heard the application, granted Mrs.
Tufts leave to examine the papers, but only in the presence of an officer of the Security Savings and Trust Company, and to make copies.

Mr. Tufts, a former missionary in India, was convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. An appeal was taken and the verdict reversed by the Supreme Court. Mrs. Tufts became reconciled to her husband, and he gained his liberty after a long confinement in the County Jail.

He has brought suit in Seattle against Mr. Roland and other attorneys, and Mrs. Adelaide Polk and Mrs. Mary Scruby, daughters of Mrs. Tufts, by a former husband, all of whom he accuses of conspiring to defame him and to obtain money from him under false pretenses.

DAMAGE SUIT OVER HOLE.

Whether Mrs. Nora Clark's fractured hip was the result of the careless driving of Chas. A. Marsh, or the negligence of the S-C Contracting Company in leaving a street obstruction without a light, is a question which must be determined by Judge Jackson. Thereby hangs a $5000 damage suit.

The hearing of Mrs. Clark's case was concluded yesterday by Judge Jackson. According to her testimony and that of Mr. Marsh, they were driving alone. Electric lights behind Mr.
Clark was bounced out of the car and suffered a fractured right hip. She charged the contracting company with negligence in having failed to place
a light on the obstruction.

It was alleged by the defense, and denied by the plaintiff, that Mr.
Marsh was driving the car at a reduced speed at the time of the accident.

DAMAGES FOR TIME. John T.
Parr, who wanted $5100 damages for false imprisonment from Patrolmen W. C. Hickey and R. J. Nichols, was awarded $9 damages by Judge York yesterday. The court held that the arrest of Mr. Parr was not without probable cause, but that the officers allowed him to remain in jail unnecessarily long without filing a complaint against him. The damages given recompense Mr. Parr for time lost as a carpenter for the thirty hours he was incarcerated.

settle up an estate. To all intents and purposes he was an American citizen, having obtained his final papers last summer. Now Mrs. Kittle notifies the County Clerk that her husband had been drafted into the army and could not prove his citizenship because he had lost his naturalization papers. He is at a military training camp and will be sent to the front unless a certified copy is forwarded. Judge Myers issued the papers. Mr. Kittle, formerly a native of England, was recently an automo-

Case Against Alleged Blackmailing Lawyers to be Given to the Jury
this Morning.

The McKelvey-Stevens blackmail case will go to the jury in the United States District Court this morning.
Yesterday was devoted to the testimony of character witnesses in behalf of one of the defendants, Charles S.
McKelvey, and the arguments of counsel. Clyde Moody, the Hemel witness who recently accepted a position in the office of Dist. Atty. Schoonover, delivered the closing address for the prosecution. In behalf of the defendants, W. O. Morton, Charles Kelley, S. M. Johnston and William
Barton addressed the court.

McKelvey and Stevens are indicted jointly for attempting blackmail upon
W. H. Evans of Monrovia and Kyle MacBratney of El Centro. Under the law both or neither of the defendants must be convicted, as it is a conspiracy charge and one defendant can not conspire with himself.

The wife and daughters of the defendant McKelvey were eager listeners to the arguments in the case, and encouraged the husband and father with their presence and sympathy.

BAMBINI WIN SUSPENSION.

Mother's Plea for Their Welfare if Husband Goes to Jail, a Savior
for Him.

With three babies clinging to her skirt, Mrs. Joe Polo begged clemency for the husband who had struck her, yesterday in Police Judge Chamberlain's court. The plea won a suspension of the sixty-day jail sentence imposed.

"How will my bambino eat if you put him in jail?" she asked, and the justice, looking first at the children, reduced the prisoner in scolding
terms.

The husband had accused the wife of extravagance in the purchase of groceries and in a fight which ensued struck her, inflicting a deep scalp wound.
